Our City Comment & discussion

by
THOMAS D. WATSON

Tomorrow is Big Day, when Realtors of Seventh Dist.
Meet in Conference.

TOMORROW, November 17th, the Glendale Realty board is to be hosts to the Boards comprising the seventh district, of which Glendale is a part, for this is the day the regional conference for the district is to be held.

All Glendale citizens should join hands with the Realty board members and show their visitors how hospitable Glendale can be.

NO organization in our city has done more for Glendale than the Realty board. With a membership of 120, this board stands second in size in the district. As to enthusiasm we are quite sure it heads the list and with plenty of margin to spare.

ALL loyal Glendallians will recognize that they are under obligation to this organization for it has had a large share in the building of our city from 1910 to an estimated $4,000,000. And the city is growing just as fast as ever, with everyone having full confidence for the tomorrow.

WITH only half the month gone building permits total $540,349 for the month. This brings the total for the year to $8,651,786, and assures us of nine million dollars in permits for eleven months of 1923, and close to three million dollars more than the entire year of 1922.

THIS is some record and one we may all be proud of for the large amount in permits taken out this month will most likely be the means of Glendale standing first among the California cities in building activity. The fact that the whole lies in the fact that houses are being sold as fast as they are built, to home-seekers. Very few of these houses are built for rental purposes and real estate firms report some trouble in securing enough houses to rent to their clients.

OUR greatest need now seems to be a hotel. Many of our citizens have been working hard to secure one, without any definite results. This convention of the Realtors will again emphasize the need, not only to the Glendale members but also to the visitors, who will have to be entertained at private houses.

This situation is a unique condition of affairs. A person goes to almost any small town and find hotel accommodations but in coming to Glendale, a city of 44,000, he has to either stay at a boarding house or with some private family.

It is setting to a state of affairs when something must be done to get a hotel, even if it has to be done through a popular subscription list made up of citizens, looking more to the welfare of the city than to a financial investment.

If the Realty board would get behind something of this sort we feel they would receive the backing of the entire citizenship and be the means of supplying our city's one greatest need.

MAGNOLIA'S NEW SCHOOL BUILDING OPENS TUESDAY

Sessions will be held for the first time Tuesday in the new $25,000 three-room unit of the Magnolia school.

Owing to the fact that the old Magnolia school building has been condemned as unsafe, it will be abandoned immediately. Plans are being considered for having this building, which is of tile, stuccoed and rebuilt for a permanent kindergarten building. Until this is done kindergarten sessions must be held in the corridor of the new building.

About 128 children are now in attendance at this school. Miss Emma Saxton of 1015 1/2 Virginia place is principal. Other teachers are Miss Evelyn Jean Henderson of 131 1/2 West Cottrell avenue and Miss Gladys Ellen Levy of 604-A East Broadway. Miss Marian J. Hammes of Los Angeles is the kindergarten director.

REALTORS ALL READY FOR BIG CONFERENCE

More than Half Million in Permits During First Half of November

SANITARIUM TAKES OUT ANOTHER PERMIT

This in Addition to One Issued a Year Ago for $400,000

The Glendale Sanitarium and Hospital at noon today took out an additional permit for $150,000. No changes in plans are indicated by the acquisition of this additional permit according to C. E. Kimlin, manager of the Glendale sanitarium and Hospital.

The original permit, which was issued about a year ago, was for $400,000. It was believed at that time that this sum would be expended in the expense of construction. The combined value of the buildings will exceed $550,000. Furnishings and equipment will amount to a number of thousands in addition.

"The building is progressing very nicely," commented Mr. Kimlin this morning. "By the first of February we ought to be able to occupy the new plant."

"Plastering is pretty well done in the main building. In a couple of weeks the plasterers ought to be out entirely."

An ornamental entrance is now being built at the approach to the property on Wilson avenue. This will consist of four columns appropriately placed. About 20,000 bricks are being utilized.

Radiators and plumbing fixtures are now being placed in all rooms. The east end of the main building is almost ready for occupancy.

A carload of doors has been delivered by the Fox-Woodsum Lumber company of 714 East California avenue. As soon as these have been stained they will be hung. The two 250-horsepower steam boilers have now been bricked in. Other heating apparatus is being installed.

Two and a half tons of carpet is now en route from Philadelphia via the Panama Canal for the rooms of the new institution. In addition 1200 yards of carpets is being shipped from Chicago for the corridors.

Interior painting is now under way. The walls of the parlor and dining room are to be papered.

PROTEST ON AUTO PARKING PLAN OF WEST BROADWAY

Council Explains the Why of It and Takes
No Action

That the arrangement of parking cars on West Broadway is discriminatory, was the assertion made before the city council last night by several of the merchants on the north side of Broadway west of Brand. The parking of cars parallel to the curbing along this stretch and at an angle on the other side of the street is working a hardship on the merchants on the north side of the street.

"We have already noticed," said Manager Russell of the Glendale branch of Ralph's store, "that there has been a falling off of our trade." Mayor Robinson and Councilman Horn explained that this method of parking on Broadway is the same as prevails on West Colorado, West Harvard, West Wilson and West California and that it was done for the sake of the citizens of the city as a whole.

No action was taken in this matter.

C. OF C. DIRECTORS' NEXT LUNCHEON AT COUNTRY CLUB

Chamber of commerce directors are looking forward to a treat Tuesday noon when their regular weekly luncheon will be held at 1130 South San Fernando road at the Glendale country club.

Entertaining will be done by the Immanuel male quartet and saxophone club. This consists of Joseph Kleinsasser, first tenor; David Kleinsasser, second tenor; Arthur L. Reimer, baritone; and Peter D. Eitzer, bass.

GLENDALE MILK GRADES HIGH SAYS STATE OFFICIAL

The municipal health department is in receipt of a "certificate of approval" commending its milk inspection standards from the state department of agriculture.

"Please accept our congratulations for the excellent work you have done in bringing your district to the standard required for approval by this department," states J. J. Frey, superintendent of dairy service.

Milk inspections are made by Mrs. J. D. DeHaven of 1017 Crescent drive who was connected with the state laboratory in the Pacific Finance building, Los Angeles, before coming to Glendale.

Dr. G. Kaemmerling of 149 North Brand boulevard is city health officer.

SEVENTH DISTRICT FIRST REGIONAL CONFERENCE

Realty Board Perfects
Plans for Big Event of the Year

The 120 members of the Glendale realty board are planning to wind up their affairs tonight so that they may play host to the hundreds of out-of-town members of the California State Real Estate association who will gather here from every corner of the Golden state to attend this year's first regional conference of the seventh district, called by Vice President Charles B. Guthrie of the state organization, some time ago.

The stage is all set for making this one of the greatest events of its kind ever held in Glendale. To a member, the Glendale realty board has pledged itself to attend this affair and to assist in making it a howling success. Each one is going to pick up a visitor and take him to lunch and is going to make him a personal guest during the day.

When the conference opens promptly at 9 o'clock Saturday morning it is expected that the Tuesday Afternoon club house, where the session will be held, will be crowded to the doors. Nearly half a thousand guests are expected and these with the local board members will probably fill the auditorium.

The entire of Saturday morning—the three hours from 9 o'clock until noon—will be given over to the discussion of the multiple listing system. Speaking both for and against the system, several prominent realtors are named on the program, among these being George W. Holbrook of San Bernardino, H. E. Nightingale of the Southwest realty board of Los Angeles, A. A. Pointer of the West Hollywood board and H. P. D. Kingsbury of Redlands. The discussion on the topic of multiple listing will be led by these four speakers and during the morning time will be given for discussion from the floor along with questions and answers.

The bright and shining light among the guests will be Henry P. Barbour of Long Beach, president of the California State Real Estate association. He will be the guest of honor at the luncheon, which will take place between noon and 1:30 o'clock, during which he will address those present on subjects that are of vital interest to the realty men generally and especially in this particular locality.

Immediately after the luncheon the guests will be taken on an automobile ride through Glendale, which will occupy about one hour.

The afternoon session will open as soon after 2 o'clock as possible and will continue until 5 o'clock. This will be given over to a variety of subjects.

The entire conference will be under the direction of Vice President Charles B. Guthrie.

A CIRCUS STILL DRAWS BIG CROWDS

Over 2,000 people attended the Golden Breeze's animal circus held Thursday night at the grounds at the corner of South San Fernando road and Park avenue.

There were trained dogs, ponies, horses, pigs, goats, monkeys, bears, lions, leopards and other animals, a large company of clowns to amuse the little folks, singing and dancing girls and many other feature acts.

STREET WORK AND ZONING PROBLEMS OCCUPY COUNCIL

Considerable Time Given to District Changes and Road Work

The matter of the establishment of a planning mill on Concord, in a residential district, was protested against by several of the residents of that district. The mill was originally in the industrial district and upon protest of the residents around it that section was changed to a residential district. Regardless of this it is claimed the company is installing machinery preparatory to starting wood-working operations. The matter was referred to Building Inspector Vandewater.

Mrs. E. Walls was granted a permit to care for two children at 405 West Deyden street.

A petition was received for the improvement of Columbus from Park to Riverdale with 5-inch macadam, sidewalk, curbing and water pipe, and the petition was referred to the city engineer for checking and report.

A petition was received for the improvement of McHenry road between Sycamore and Adams. This was referred to the city engineer for checking.

On motion of Councilman Hall $1,000 was ordered transferred from the unappropriated reserve to the unappropriated reserve of the park budget for the improvement of Patterson avenue Park as follows: Top surface, $500; tools, $200; stone and curbs, $150; public facilities, $150.

There were no protests against the vacating of Rio street and the next step in this work was ordered taken.

No protests were received against the vacating of Santa Maria avenue and the next step in this work was ordered taken.

The converting back of Linden from Commercial to residential was ordered.

Commercial districts were established as follows: Sycamore Canyon road and Sierra avenue; Palmer at Adams; Central avenue, Los Feliz to Cypress.

The following first-class residential districts were ordered established: On Doran, Chester, Fairmont and Patterson; Campbell, from Dryden to the north city limits; Lexington drive, Columbus to Pacific.

An ordinance establishing a commercial district on Central, Wilson to Lexington, was adopted.

An ordinance ordering the vacating of Rio and Santa Maria were introduced.

COUNCIL GRANTS DETWILER PERMIT FOR AUTO CAMP

The Glendale city council last night granted to R. J. Dixon, 511 Oak street, a permit to operate an automobile camp ground at 146 South San Fernando road, which is close to the corner of San Fernando and Broadway. The camp, it is understood, is to be conducted by Henry W. Detwiler, who now resides at that place.

This camp will be erected to conform with a plat that is on file in the office of the city clerk. In this park there will be 89 neat little cabins, which provide for the accommodation of that number of camping parties. Toilet facilities, shower baths, oilied streets, and all other necessary features have been provided in the arrangement of this camp.

This camp will be under the supervision of the city officials at all times and every effort will be made both by the city and the proprietor of the place to keep it in a strictly sanitary condition.

GLENDALE TO ENTERTAIN VALLEY C. OF C. DIRECTORS

Glendale will be hostess November 27 to directors of the San Fernando Valley chambers of commerce.

Plans for the occasion include a banquet at the Tuesday Afternoon clubhouse and a program of local talent.

G-M RAILWAY PUTS NEW CAR INTO SERVICE

Three More to Be Shipped
From the Factory on December 10

The Glendale-Montrose Railway yesterday put into service one of its new passenger cars.

Three additional cars will be shipped from St. Louis on December 10 according to an announcement received from the American Car company. Each will be 43 feet long and will accommodate 55 passengers.

The car which has been put into service was purchased from the street car company at Santa Barbara. It was delivered about a month ago to the local car barn in Montrose, where it has been thoroughly overhauled. It is 40 feet long and will carry 38 passengers.

Confidence that street cars will be in operation on South Glendale avenue before the end of the year was expressed yesterday by P. L. Hatch, general manager of the Glendale-Montrose railway.

The only contingency which may interfere with this service, in his opinion, is a possibility that the heavier rails to be laid by the Union Pacific previous to the repaving of the street may not have been installed.

The station of the Glendale-Montrose company has now been moved from 119 East Broadway into its own building at 143 North Glendale, which has not yet been completely finished. This building has a frontage of 80 feet on the west side of Glendale avenue, between Wilson avenue and Broadway, and a depth of 60 feet.

On either side of the station itself are two stores, each 15 by 60 feet in size. The one on the north will be occupied by a confectionery, while the one to the south will be a real estate office.

The portion of the building between the two stores is recessed about three feet from the property line. Concrete seats are being placed in this space which will be used as an outside waiting room.

Directly inside the entrance is the inside waiting room. This is about twenty feet wide and fifteen deep. The ceiling is sixteen feet high. Both walls and ceiling are finished in green jazz plaster.

One of the features of the waiting room is a telephone booth. Another feature is a ticket counter from the waiting room by ticket counter. This room contains a recessed safe and other equipment.

Private offices, three in number, are in the rear. Here conductors will have space to make out their reports.

The power house is located a few feet in the rear of the main building. It is built of concrete blocks and is about fifteen by twenty feet in size. It contains a 200 kilowatt generator, purchased from the Pacific Electric, and a space for a generator of similar size ordered from the Westinghouse Electric company at East Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

RUSSIAN "COUNT" MAKES LARGE PROPERTY CLAIMS

[By Associated Press]
SAN ANTONIO, Texas, Nov. 16.—Special agent of the treasury department, Mason, declined to discuss the origin of the loot seized from "Count" Alberto Sichefsky, arrested in Los Angeles today.

Reporters in San Antonio who were shown the tapestries state that they were undoubtedly of high value although they might have been imitations. "Count" Sichefsky entered the United States from Mexico via Juarez in 1920. He was convicted in San Diego in March, 1921, and sentenced to a term in the federal penitentiary at McNeil Island.

Sichefsky was a guest at a prominent hotel last week and posed as a Russian nobleman in this country to dispose of his family possessions. At one time, he said, his family owned 99 estates in Russia.

He displayed a telegram from Seattle which stated that his agent there had just disposed of a Paris estate for a half million dollars. He also showed a reporter a roll of one hundred $1000 bills, a six carat diamond ring and some of what he said were the crown jewels of the Romanoffs.

AUTO CAMP CASE CONTINUED UNTIL DEC. 17, BY COURT

At the hearing of the case of Hatfield vs. the city of Glendale and members of the city council of Glendale, set for hearing this morning at 10 o'clock in Department 26 of the superior court, Los Angeles, before Judge Archibald, the motion of W. Claire Anspeach, attorney for plaintiff asking for a continuance until December 17 in the same court, was granted. Leslie Tarr, assistant city attorney, represented the defendants. The effect of the continuance will be to delay action by the city in closing the auto camp conducted by plaintiff at San Fernando and Riverdale drive under the recent cancellation of his permit by the city council.

CENTRAL AVENUE WIDENING PLAN STILL IN BALANCE

For and "Agin" Advocates Both Claim They Have Best of It

The hearing on the widening of Central avenue was continued last night by the Glendale city council for one month. The contending factions in this matter appeared before the council and voiced their views in emphatic terms. Both sides claimed to have a larger percentage of the frontage on the avenue. The legal protest against this work bore more than 50 per cent of the frontage on Central avenue and only 42 per cent of the frontage in the entire assessment district. After filing this protest those against the move filed another bearing 21 per cent of the total district represented, this, however, being filed after time for filing had expired. Those in favor of the widening claimed that only 42 per cent legal protest had been filed.

Both factions declared they could get at least 75 per cent of the frontage on Central if permitted to do so and on motion of Councilman Davis the matter was laid over for one month.

"Let's make it a free for all," said Sam. "You both claim you have the thing cinched. Go to it and see what you can do."

EMMA LINDSEY SQUIER TO SPEAK AT GLENDAL HI

On Saturday evening, November 17, at 8 o'clock, Emma Lindsey Squier, the famous writer of animal stories, will give a talk at the Glendale high school auditorium on behalf of the projected, Glendale Humane society.

Emma Lindsey Squier is known throughout the world as an animal lover of unique quality. She is as much at home in a cage of lions as in a drawing room, as lions are only big cats to her.

Her stories have been appearing in high-class magazines, and her book, "The Wild Heart," is running into a best seller.

In San Diego, where the authorities, it has been necessary for her to repeat the lecture several times, as the halls are always packed.

At one time Emma Lindsey lived in Glendale and loves it, and the fact that it has no humane society to care for the lost or unwanted animals has wrung her heart. She wishes to give this free talk, to meet her old friends and to assist all animal lovers to some speedy and definite result on behalf of our defenseless and four-footed friends.

MISS MARR'S SUIT TO NULLIFY GAS BONDS IN COURT

The suit brought by Miss Winifred Marr of Verdugo Woodlands to have bonds sold by the city of Glendale, August 30, in behalf of Municipal Improvement district No. 6, declared illegal, was taken under advisement yesterday by Judge Walton S. Wood in department 21 of the superior court.

The bonds were sold to provide funds for the extension of gas service in a certain section of Verdugo Canyon. This was done at the expense of the Southern California Gas company. A readiness to redeem the bonds and cancel the transaction on the part of the city administration has been interfered with by this suit.

ROTARY CLUB IN SNAPPY MEETING THURSDAY NOON

Two New Members Added and Four Visitors Are Welcomed

At the snappy meeting of the Rotary club held Thursday noon at the Egyptian Village cafe, four visiting Rotarians were introduced and welcomed, viz.: Lucius Jarvis of Pasadena, Henry J. Priesen of Grand Forks, North Dakota; Hugh Chaffee of Pasadena, and F. Curt Miller of Burbank. Also, two new members were enrolled, Dr. Warren Z. Newton and Paul Stillman.

A series of lectures on salesmanship were announced by L. F. Miller, manager of the Sun Drug company. An announcement was also made by George U. Moyse of the football game to be played Friday afternoon by teams of Glendale high and Covina high for the championship of the Central league. The board was graced by chrysanthemums from the garden of Rotarian Ed Hewitt and each member received buttonhole carnations from Mrs. D. Gritton of the Jensen Floral shop.

Burton McGinnis, secretary of the Glendale Community Chest explained the mission of the chest in a clear and forceful way and the plans for conducting the drive which is to begin next Tuesday morning following a mass meeting at Glendale high Monday night at which final explanations will be made to all who desire information and last instructions will be given to majors, captains and workers.

As the last meeting of the month would fall on Thanksgiving day, the club voted to lunch on Wednesday instead of Thursday this week. The music of the program was contributed by Mayor Spencer Robinson, who sang, "Friends O Mine" and "Until."

GLENDAL'S FREE HEALTH CLINIC IS TO OPEN MONDAY

Glendale's free health clinic will open Monday.

A suite of room in the quarters of the health department in the old Tropico city hall has been fitted up for the service of the clinic. One of the rooms contains two regulation hospital beds; another contains equipment for emergency and minor operations, and the third contains dental equipment.

Dr. G. Kaemmerling of 149 North Brand boulevard, city health officer, is arranging with a number of local doctors and dentists to give their services without cost to those in need. They are determined that no one in this vicinity shall suffer for lack of medical attention because of inability to pay.

The clinic, which will be open from 8 to 12 each morning, will be in charge of Mrs. Edith Sadler of 1447 Ardmore avenue, city health nurse, and Mrs. J. D. DeHaven of 1017 Crescent street, city bacteriologist.

FATHER AND SON BANQUET TONIGHT, CHRISTIAN CHURCH

About 150 "boys"—both under and over twenty-one years of age—tonight are expected to attend the annual Fathers and Sons banquet at the Central Christian church.

Rev. W. S. Buchanan, pastor of the Broadway Christian church, Los Angeles, will be the speaker of the evening. His subject will be "The Joy of Being a Son, and the Responsibility of Being a Father."

A male quartet will sing "Smilin' Through" and other vocal numbers. This will be composed of Charles Comfort of 301 South Central avenue, first tenor; J. B. Clark of 336 North Maryland avenue, second tenor; C. Clifford Riggs of 336 Salem street, first bass; Myran Carman of 383 Salem street, second bass. Mrs. Riggs will be the accompanist.

CASA VERDUGO LADIES' AID PLANS BAZAAR

At the meeting of the Ladies' Aid of the Casa Verdugo Methodist church held Thursday afternoon, plans were made for the annual bazaar which the society will hold this year in a store at the corner of Stocker and Central, December 8.

Just Off the Wire From Here and There

[By Associated Press]
WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—By January 1 the world will have in operation 17,000,000 automobiles, passenger cars and trucks, according to an estimate made today by M. H. Hoeph, chief of the automotive division of the commerce department. Of that total he said, 14,000,000 will be running in the United States, or about one to every eight persons, whereas in the rest of the world the proportion will be about one to 112 persons.

BRAWLEY, Calif., Nov. 16.—The phenomenal desert occurrence of an all day rain storm is indicated by the weather here today. A general rain has been falling since 7:30 o'clock this morning throughout the Imperial valley. Some damage is feared to cotton but a lettuce crop rated in size at 10,000 cars is being benefited by the precipitation.

AURORA, ILL., Nov. 16.—What to do with a goat which Wednesday ate half a pound of nitroglycerine in gelatin form and then ate two sticks of dynamite, is perplexing authorities here. No one has been found willing to approach the animal with any proposition.

HOLCOMBE, WIS., Nov. 16.—With the aid of acetylene torches, handiarts early today entered the vault and safe of the State Bank of Holcombe and escaped with $2,000 in cash and $1,300 in negotiable bonds.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—New York's latest crime wave continued today as a man smashed a plate glass window in a fashionable Fifth Avenue shop of H. Koon Inc., and escaped in an automobile with $50,000 worth of furs.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 16.—Four armed bandits held up the Liberty State Bank at Hamtramck, a Detroit suburb today and escaped with between $2,000 and $3,000, missing $7,000 which was in the vault.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—December cotton sold at 34.65 cents on the opening call today, an advance of 70 points and a new high figure for the season.

SPECIAL 'INVITE' TO PASADENA FETE SENT GLENDAL

'Tis Accepted and City
Expects to Carry Off
Another Prize

A special invitation for Glendale to take part in the Tournament of Roses, Pasadena, 1924, was received yesterday by E. F. Sanders, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

Pasadena observes her fiftieth anniversary as a political subdivision of California during 1924, according to William Dunkerly, secretary of the Pasadena Chamber of Commerce, and plans are being made to start the year right with an appropriate celebration.

A football game between Annapolis and a champion "pigskin" squad representing the Pacific coast is expected to tax the capacity of the Rose Bowl.

Glendale's float this year in the annual parade is expected to win another first prize. The design has been approved and preliminary work is being done already.

The float committee of the Chamber of Commerce consists of L. W. Chobe, Peter L. Ferry, C. C. Cooner, James M. Rhoades and E. F. Sanders.

ALL THE STORES IN JENSEN BUILDING ARE PROSPERING

"Village of Stores" Is the Great Attraction to Many Buyers

The several shops of Jensen's Palace Grand building are offering special inducements for Saturday, when a social time is prepared for the people of Glendale, music and other entertainment being the features. This promises to be an important event for Glendale residents, and a large crowd is expected.

In the Lewis Jewelry shop, a large assortment of fine Christmas gifts will be found, which are sure to please the eye.

The Melba-Jeanne Shoppe is featuring several specials in ladies' ready-to-wear, all at reduced prices for this event.

Expert beauty workers will be found in the Palace Grand beauty parlors, where excellent permanent waving is offered.

The Gift and Art Needlework shop carries a full line of vases and other art gifts, all of which make excellent presents.

Glendale's most unique cafe and grill, the Egyptian Village, offers the best in cuisine, with dancing to music by the Sunset orchestra from 6 p. m. until midnight.

Sherrod's, carrying a full line of corsets, lingerie and hosiery, have one of the most complete stores of its kind in the city, and several special values are being offered Saturday.

Theodore Karras, who took over the Palace Grand Floral Art shop, reports a flourishing business, and his display of beautiful flowers and wreaths are sure to draw a large crowd to his shop.

The famous Alberta Sheetz Mission candies, known all over the southland, are now featured in shops No. 6. This is a branch store from Los Angeles, but the same quality and service as found in the other stores are offered here.

Hand-made hats at reduced prices is the Saturday special for the Marion Elizabeth Hat shop. Dinner, dress and sport hats are also offered at low figures.

Everyone knows the great values given by the Sun Drug company, successors to Jensen's drug, and their already low prices are reduced for this special event. An expert prescription department is maintained, orders being promptly and efficiently filled.

All of these shops, being "out of the high rent district," but still being the most centrally located in Glendale, are able to offer better values and lower prices, which accounts for the great increase in their business.

MRS. E. B. MOORE NOW COMMUNITY PLAYERS' V. P. Glendale Community Players announce the acceptance by Mrs. Eustace Moore of the position of vice president of their organization. Mrs. Moore is known to many of the residents of Glendale through her position as president of the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teachers associations. In a gracious speech made to the Players at their meeting on Wednesday by Mrs. Moore, she voiced her deep interest in the splendid work of the Community Players' organization and promised her warmest cooperation not only as an active officer but also as a participant in the dramatic and social sections of its work.

COMMUNITY PLAYERS TO GIVE DANCING PARTY

On Wednesday evening, November 21, the Glendale Community Players will give a card and dancing party at their club hall, 1428 South San Fernando road, beginning at 8 o'clock. There will be progressive bridge and $500 and prizes will be awarded. Informal dancing will be from 9:30 until 11 o'clock. The Players have a social hostess at each of these parties whose duty is to see that everyone becomes acquainted. Invitations may be secured by registering with Mrs. L. Bradley, 131 1/2 South Brand boulevard or Mrs. Nanno Woods, 121 West Milford street.

ANOTHER PASTOR AT THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

The First Baptist church has grown so fast in the last four years that it has been found necessary to call an associate pastor to help the Rev. Ernest E. Ford carry on the growing work. After several months of searching a call was extended to Rev. Charles H. Tilden, and he has accepted and begins work with the local church on Sunday, Nov. 18. Mr. Tilden was born in Worcester, Mass., and after graduating from the College and Seminary of Colgate University, went to Assam, India as an Educational missionary. Because of poor health he was sent home in 1922, and because of the continued poor health of his wife is unable to return. Mr. Tilden will have charge of the educational work of the church and help the pastor in the general work, and the special work for which plans are drawn. Mr. and Mrs. Tilden and their three boys will reside at 609 East Palmer.

HYNES ENTERTAIN FRIENDS AT DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. George Hynes of South Brand boulevard entertained a group of friends at a dinner party at their home on Thursday night. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. J. Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. W. Eckles, Mrs. and Mrs. W. Siebert and son Billy, W. C. Burton and Mr. and Mrs. Hynes.

THURSDAY CLUB HAS 30 PERCENT AND MAKES ROSES

About 80 members of the Thursday Afternoon club assembled at the K. of P. hall Thursday afternoon for the first lesson in the arts and crafts section, just inaugurated. The making of ribbon roses was undertaken under the instruction of Mrs. McNaughton Barnes, curator. Great interest and enthusiasm and considerable creative talent was exhibited.

Following the lesson was a business session over which Mrs. E. V. Bacon presided. The resignation of Mrs. Roy Hancock as corresponding secretary was received and accepted with regret. Mrs. Hancock is moving to Oakland. Mrs. Sever was elected to fill the vacant office. Another important appointment was that of Mrs. Chauncey Lake as chairman of ways and means. In accepting the chairmanship Mrs. Lake appealed for the cooperation of all the members. An appeal was made for donation of clothing, supplies and salvage for the Children's hospital in Los Angeles.

Following the business session refreshments were served during a social hour. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. L. Bancroft.

SHAKESPEARE SECTION TO GIVE BIG DANCE

Special plans are being perfected by the Shakespeare section of the Tuesday Afternoon club, of which Mrs. Walter Jones is curator, for a big dancing party to be held on Saturday night, November 17, at the club ballroom. This will be one of the big features of the club's society circus. Dancing will begin promptly at 8 o'clock and continue until 11:30. Of special interest is the announcement that music for dancing will be furnished by Wm. Bode's orchestra.

THREE ONE-ACT PLAYS AT HIGH SCHOOL TONIGHT

Many attractions are on the calendar for tonight and among them should not be forgotten the three one-act plays to be presented by pupils of the dramatic department of Glendale high. Not many honest-to-goodness plays are offered in Glendale and when the talent of Glendale high, which is above the average for amateurs, gives a public performance, no patron of the drama can afford to stay away. Tickets will probably be at a premium.

CHRISTIAN CIRCLE CLUB IN WEEKLY MEETING

Girls of the Christian Circle club to the number of 45 met for their weekly supper and Bible study at the Christian church Thursday night, the meal being served by the ladies of the church. Mrs. Frances Neth of the Los Angeles Corner club, founder of the Glendale circle, was the instructor, taking the place of Miss Maude Soper who is taking special extension work at the University of Southern California which interferes with her activities in connection with the Circle club.

Mrs. Arthur C. Brown, clerk of the board of education, who has been very ill and confined to her home on Milford street for the past five weeks, is reported as better though still weak. She is stimulated by the prospects of a reunion of the members of her family at her home in the near future, the first in thirty years. She has agreed to let them handle all the details of the affair, leaving her to be the guest of honor.

W. O. Kearley of 1215 Tyler street has returned from an extended visit to Idaho and Nevada, where he was the guest of old friends of early days in the Cumberland mountains of Tennessee. He met many Tennesseans who have located in Idaho and again enjoyed deer hunting.

LA CRESCENTA NOTES

Mrs. E. K. Foster of Los Angeles, head of the Protective League of that city, was the principal speaker at the regular meeting of the Parent-Teachers' association yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Foster gave a splendid talk on training children and her personal experience in juvenile work. A delightful program was given by the pupils of Miss Rhea, Mrs. Greenburg and Miss Rasmussen's rooms. Miss Rhea's room carried off the honors of the day by having the most mothers in attendance. The day of meeting for the P.T.A. has been changed from the third to the fourth Thursday of each month. Mr. Blanford, principal, gave a short talk and requested the parents to send any books their children had outgrown to the school library, for the benefit of other children. Mrs. G. Telfer and Mrs. Willis Wise were hostesses during the refreshment hour.

Many novel costumes are being planned for the parade dancing party to be given by the La Crescenta Woman's club tomorrow evening. Prizes will be awarded for the most comical costume and the most attractive one. Fletcher's orchestra of Pasadena will furnish the music.

The famous lecture of Dr. Montague Cleaves, entitled "The Builders of Gothic Cathedrals" was given last evening under the auspices of the Woman's guild of Saint Luke's of the Mountains Episcopal church. Dr. Cleaves' lecture was illustrated with more than 100 slides and was intensely interesting. Dr. Cleaves was introduced by Dr. Renison of Eagle Rock, who also made an impressive talk, dwelling much on the beauties of the new Episcopal church to be erected in the near future.

ART ASSOCIATION HAS FINE EXHIBIT IN BANQUET ROOM

The Glendale Art association is this month having an interesting exhibit in the banquet room of the Tuesday Afternoon club, which should be studied by patrons of the Society Circus today and tomorrow. It is by local artists who are association members and includes a collection of small canvases on the west wall which will be sold to the highest bidders at the close of the exhibit. The bids are being left in a receptacle provided for them near the pictures and no bid lower than $10 will be received. The bidder indicates the picture desired and the highest bidder for that canvas gets it. The exhibit includes John Cotton's "Desert Stream," postically beautiful in composition and coloring. E. Franquinet's "Summer's Day" is refreshingly cool in coloring, quiet in technique. J. M. Mc Neely's "Shades of Evening" is a canvas that will please those who prefer quiet color. Walter Cheever's "Gossamer" will be very satisfying to those who like pictures that tell a story and who can appreciate the many beauties of the composition. F. Watrin's "Old Trail" has atmospheric realism both in composition and coloring. R. Streit's "Camp Baldy" is strong and convincing in depicting the well-known resort. Easterners will be pleased with J. C. Armstrong's water color, "Beauties of Autumn." R. Derby has a beautiful contribution, restful in tone, in his "Old Roadway in Griffith Park." Nell Walker Warner's "High Fog in the Tujunga" is a tender yet strong piece of work. In "Mists of the Tujunga" Laura Lee Sweet has given a realistic portrayal of a beautiful subject. Harriet Berry's "Autumn in the Verdugos" shows soft, tender handling of a lovely theme. Mrs. Mary Loundsbury's "Old Adobe in Verdugo" is a beautiful and idealistic interpretation of this famous landmark. Miss Rubi Causey's "The Sheikh's Favorite" is a very beautiful figure study in the nude. Mrs. S. J. Lane shows another beautiful example of eastern woodland with strong lighting effect in "Early Morning." Mrs. Blanch Balogh gives an inspiring glimpse of Mount Hood. Other participants in the exhibit are F. Trickey, Mrs. Mary De Witt and Mrs. Clara Card.

Greatest Fun in Decorating Kitchen

The greatest fun in decorating can be had with the kitchen, says a contributor to an exchange. That is the one room in the house that should not be taken too seriously. Here one can try out all those papers that are too strange, or too vivid and bizarre to be attempted elsewhere. There are delightful garden effects with fruit trees showing bright, ripe fruit and informal landscapes, landscapes that give a widening effect. The kitchen because it is devoted to dull labor need never be dull. Out-of-door effects are especially satisfying and further help to relieve the long, weary hours that often must be spent in the kitchen.

At a large, merry Thanksgiving dinner I let my guests find their own places at the table by the place-cards. No names were written on the cards, but each turned out to be a kodak picture of one of the guests, taken "unknownst." Mrs. B. M., Nevada, in "Modern Priscilla."

GLENDALEBROADWAY P.-T. A.
HAS PROFITABLE AND BUSY MEET

After calling to order the Broadway P.-T. A. at the regular meeting on Thursday, the president, Mrs.
Mary Reese asked members to pause for a moment to give thanks for the many blessings that have come to them the past year and all joined in repeating the Lord's Prayer.

Reports on the membership drive showed that the prize had been won by pupils in Miss Gunderson's room who were given the ice cream cone treat.

Mrs. Wickert reported that the net returns from the card party given jointly by the Broadway and Wilson Avenue P.-T. A. a benefit for Mrs. McGahan, widow of the fire victim, had netted $23.30.

Plans were announced for increasing funds in the association treasury by giving a luncheon for the children of the school next Thursday, November 22, and again
two weeks from that date.

Announcement was also made that the philanthropy department will make a quilt for charity in the near future.

A varied and interesting program was then presented, Dr. Owens giving a fine talk, and Mrs. Alma Danford speak in the value of good reading and the place of the public library in the community.
Miss Farnor, one of the teachers of the school, gave an entertaining account of her trip last summer to Scotland. An explanation of the community chest and an appeal for its support by members of the association was made by Mrs.
Adell Wickert. Little Bessie Smith, a pupil in the school, danced the Highland Fling beautifully. Mrs.
Mary Ogden Ryan, principal, announced that next week will be Education Week and urged the mothers to visit the school, especially on Wednesday, which will be "School and Teachers' Day".
Seymour Rethberg, secretary of the Fathers' Auxiliary, told what the fathers are planning to do and invited the mothers to attend the next meeting of the auxiliary, November 22, at 8 p. m. He stated that on the night mentioned the entire school will be open to inspection and the work of the children will be on display.

Miss Mildred Hughey, assistant supervisor of music in the city schools contributed a vocal solo with Miss Gladys Sharpe at the piano. The meeting closed with the singing of patriotic songs led by Miss Hughey.

The next regular meeting of the association will be held December 20 at 8 p. m., in conjunction with the Fathers' Auxiliary when the program will be given by the children of the school.

REAL CIRCUS IS ON
AT THE TUESDAY
CLUB HOUSEEverything Is Ready and Hosts of Pretty Things to Buy

"Those women of the Tuesday Afternoon club! What have they not done and cannot do is not worth telling about. First thing you know they will be solicited to join the carpenters' union."

These and similar comments were made by those who happened in on the busy, bustling workmen of this organization on Thursday as they were preparing for the big event—the Society Circus that is being held at the club house today and tomorrow. For, with hammer and nails, plus determination, they were going right ahead, building booths, decorating them and attractively arranging the articles offered so as to tempt the eye of the prospective purchaser.

Who would not be tempted by the lovely, beautiful and useful articles, not to say the good things to eat, would indeed be hard to please. The arts and crafts section, of which Mrs. H. A. McPherson and Mrs. W. C. Wattles are curators, have charge of the creative booth located in the palm court. Beautiful articles are also offered at the fancy work booth in the palm court, of which the music section, with Mrs. Warren Roberts as curator, has charge.
Ye Olde Booke Shoppe, in charge of the fine arts section, of which Mrs. Roy Bellagay is curator, assisted by the Bible and travel sections, with Mrs. C. H. Temple and Mrs. Mabel Franklin Ocker as curators, has an attractive booth of orange and black conveniently placed at the south end of the palm court.

The daintiest "hankies" in rainbow hues and of all descriptions are offered at the maids and young matrons booth, assisted by the calling committees. Holders are also on sale there, the purchaser being given an opportunity of winning a beaded bag. Then, there is the doll booth located in the ballroom, in charge of Mrs. M.
S. McKee, Mrs. Leroy Bosserman,
Mrs. H. R. Boyer, Mrs. S. C. Leppelman and Miss Eva Daniels. A hope chest, donated by the New England Furniture company, and filled with lingerie, towels and all kinds of beautiful things, will be disposed of. This is in charge of Mrs. Alex Mitchell and the courtesy committee.

At the northeast end of the ballroom in the apron booth, presided over by Mrs. Hugh Blue of the international relations committee, Mrs. T. H. Hudson of the philanthropic committee and Mrs. F. S.
Card of the local relief committee.
Of special interest to the children will be the fish pond, in charge of Mrs. J. M. Eyerick of the decoration committee, Mrs. B. O. Holbrook of reciprocity. In the northwest corner is the "goose" in charge of Mrs. Wm. P. MacMullin, chairman of civics, assisted by Mrs.
A. M. Hunt, Mrs. Harry Lockwood and Mrs. P. S. McNutt. The members of the parliamentary law section have prepared a parcel post booth, with regular post office windows. Assisting at this booth are Mrs. C. C. Cooper, Mrs. Eugene
Gilliland and Mrs. R. A. Blackburn.

Other attractions include "candy box," in charge of history and landmarks committee, gifts and memorial chairman and chairman of emblems; hot dogs, Mrs. F. L. Hollingsworth; noon luncheon on Friday, hospitality committee; chicken pie dinner, Saturday night, home economics section; Conalt booth, Mrs. Ella Richardson; dancing party, Saturday night, Shakespeare section, 8 until 11:30 p. m.; cooked foods, literature section, of which Mrs. H. C. Wilcox is curator;
"Streets of Cairo," midway show

MRS. KAPP GIVES TALK ON GREAT
ART PRINCIPLE

"Color," one of the greatest art principles, and "Color Psychology," were the topics of a most interesting talk given at the regular meeting of the home economics section of the Tuesday Afternoon club on Thursday by Mrs. Henrietta Kapp of Los Angeles. Mrs. Kapp stated
"just as there are certain notes in the scale of music that make a harmonious blending of sound, you can take certain colors and make a harmony of color. But, if you take some color that is off key you will make as great an inharmony as if striking the wrong note in music."

A room will never be successful in its color scheme unless it contains all of the colors, that is some one or combination of red, blue and yellow, used in some way.
Some of the color notes might be supplied through bouquets, lamps, pictures, etc. When we realize the meaning of color we can work out in a room the things we want. Red always stands for activity, blue for elevated being, yellow for achievement. Interesting things happen when we mix these colors. By mixing red and blue we have violet, a color brought out through active mental development. Active mentality will give us spirituality, peace and quiet, happiness and rest. The outcome of mixing blue and yellow gives us mental achievement, which reflects itself in green and stands for growth. When we surround ourselves with this color there will be growth, contentment and happiness. When we use orange in the way in which it should be it is a wonderful color, but we must compliment it with the blue to have a perfect setting. Red and yellow make orange and means advancement of active achievement."

These principles of color psychology were used in several examples of interior decoration explained by Mrs. Kapp and proved very instructive. She also told of the use of draperies and furniture to suit various types of rooms.

At the close of the talk a short business meeting was held, in charge of the curator, Mrs. Allen Fairchild, when routine matters were transacted.

GUILD PREPARING FOR NEXT WEEK'S BAZAAR

At the regular meeting of St.
Mark's guild of the Episcopal church, held Thursday at the home of Mrs. B. B. Atwood, 706 East Harvard street, final arrangements were made for the guild bazaar to be held at the church parlors on Friday, November 23 beginning at 10 a. m. Mrs. Catherine Goodwin is to be general chairman in charge. She will be assisted by the following: Mrs. Frank England and Mrs. Sarah Hill, to have charge of the dinner which will be served at 7 p. m.; Mrs. Farber, quilts, bed linen and rugs; Miss Louis Packer, home made kitchen aprons and dresses; Mrs. Grace Rousey, cooked food booth; Mrs. F. S. Card, fancy work and dolls; Mrs.
Speck, tea and cake and popcorn balls.

NEEDLECRAFT CLUB HAS BIRTHDAY LUNCHEON

Members of the Wilson Avenue
Needlecraft club held a birthday luncheon party at the Egyptian Village cafe on Thursday in celebration of the birthdays of six of the members whose anniversaries occur in November: Mrs. J. K.
Todd, Mrs. L. H. Beck, Mrs. Frank
Stahl, Mrs. Eda Lord, Mrs. C. F.
McKee and Mrs. Taylor. Covers were also laid for Miss Olive Beck, Mrs. Jean Forrester, Mrs. Olive
Kee, Mrs. F. L. Cheney, Mrs. John
McGregor and Mrs. H. H. Pettit.
There was a large birthday cake and all of the customary decorations. After luncheon a theatre party was enjoyed.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The ladies of Central Christian church will have their annual bazaar in the social hall of the building next Tuesday. Appetizing noon luncheon will be served and a "scrumptious" chicken pie dinner in the evening. Quilts, aprons and many fancy articles, daintily made and suitable for presents, will be on sale. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend. It is a good place to get two five meals on that day and let the women folk take a rest.

LEGION AUXILIARY TO MEET NEXT MONDAY

On Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock members of American Legion Auxiliary will hold their regular meeting. Mrs. Margaret Kaeding, president, will give her report on the recent convention. The first nomination of officers for the ensuing year will also take place at this meeting. Plans will be discussed for Christmas preparations for the ex-service men and nurses.

WILSON AVENUE P.-T. A.
LADIES TO GIVE CARD PARTY

Mrs. Harry C. Jones of 1215 East Wilson avenue will entertain the ladies of the Wilson Avenue P.- T. A. card party at a card party to be given at her home at 9 o'clock on Monday afternoon.

In charge of drama section, and other features.

Every admission ticket to the circus entitles the holder to an opportunity of winning a Ford automobile, which will be given away at 10 o'clock Saturday night and presented to the lucky person by Miss Ruth Roland.

COLUMBUS AVENUE P.-T. A.
OBSERVES WEEKS

At the meeting of the Columbus avenue P.-T. A. held Thursday afternoon, both book week and education week were observed in the program provided. Richardson D.
White, superintendent of schools, made an address on the present public school system of America as compared with the system 50 years ago. Mrs. Alma Danford, city librarian, told of books in the library that are helpful to mothers and of the aim of the library to give them special service. A vocal duet by Mrs. W. Q. Widdows and Mrs. J.
Albert Myers, completed the program which was all of unusual interest and thoroughly enjoyed by the 75 members present.

ANNOUNCE HOLIDAY RATES
OVER SANTA FE LINES

The Santa Fe will sell reduced fares for the round trip on account of the holidays, effective for Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's, according to announcement made by James B. Duffy, general passenger agent.

The sales for Thanksgiving to points on its lines in California will be November 28-29, and for Christmas, December 22 to 25. For New Year's December 29 to 31, limited to January 3.

The rates will be one and one-half fares for the round trip. The travel is expected to be heavy throughout the holiday period.

LUTHERAN LADIES TO GIVE BAZAAR, CHICKEN DINNER

The Ladies guild of the First Lutheran church will give a chicken dinner and bazaar at the Masonic temple, 232 South Brand, Saturday, 5:30 to 8 p. m. The proceeds of the dinner will go to the new church building fund. The ladies have merited an enviable reputation for serving fine dinners. In the bazaar many beautiful and useful articles will be found that are suitable for Christmas gifts. Fancy work, aprons and children's apparel will be on sale. You are invited to take your dinner with them.

MRS. J. HARTMAN GIVES LUNCHEON CARD PARTY

Mrs. J. Hartman of North Western avenue was hostess at a 12:30 o'clock luncheon and five hundred card party at her home on Wednesday afternoon. Covers were laid for Mrs. H. Richter, Mrs. W.
Eckles, Mrs. G. Hartman, Mrs. R.
Shirk, Mrs. C. Vogel, Mrs. T.
Evans, Mrs. W. Siebert, Mrs. G.
Hyne, Mrs. M. Wisman, Mrs. F.
Doeblick and the hostess. Mrs.
Hyne won first prize for high score. Mrs. Siebert second and Mrs.
Eckles third.

GIRL SCOUTS WILL BE HOSTESSES AT RALLY

Girl Scouts will be hostesses to their sisters who are now tender-feet in a rally to be held about December 8 in the girls' gymnasium at Glendale Union high school.

The formation of additional troops was discussed last night in the chamber of commerce lobby by the Girl Scout executive council.
Mrs. F. A. Beach of 327 Riverdale drive presided. Mrs. Pierson Han-ning of 235 North Orange street suggested a rally.

GLENDALE FOLK AT EASTERN STAR RECEPTION

Los Angeles chapter of Eastern Star are giving a reception at the Wiltshire country club in honor of Mrs. Maude Bigelow Sibley, worthy grand matron of the order of the Eastern Star of the state of California. Among the members of the Eastern Star who are going from Glendale to attend this affair are Mr. and Mrs. D. Ripley Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Bourne, Mr. and Mrs. Evans, and Mrs. Porter
Custer and others.

VAN NUYS I. O. O. F. LODGE TO BE HOST NEXT FRIDAY

At the meeting of the Odd Fellows' lodge, held Thursday night, an invitation was received from Van Nuys lodge, which will entertain the grand master next Friday night and put on the second degree work, for the Glendale lodge to attend. The Glendale Odd Fellows are planning to go over in large numbers to join in the celebration.

FIRST M. E. F. M. A.
PLANS "STATES" DINNER

Members of the Foreign Missionary society of the First Methodist church are planning to hold a
"states" dinner at the church parlors on Friday, November 23.
Everyone is invited to attend and to let the other person know what state he or she is from. Mrs. Ed-

BRUNSWICK SCOOPS THE WORLD WITH A NEW TIRE

Friction-Proofed BRUNSWICK SEDAN TIRES

For All Cars

We offer you a new tire to meet a new need. A tire planned and built to resist the two great enemies of mileage—friction heat, and the additional strain to which tires on closed cars are subjected. Brunswick Tires meet the new demands imposed by closed cars, through the strong construction and heat resisting materials used.

For CLOSED AND OPEN CARS

The modern closed car with its top-weighted body is differently balanced from open cars. It causes a totally different tire stress, and demands a sturdier tire than open cars. Brunswick Sedan Tires are built to meet this new condition, but it is only logical that the same tire will give greater mileage on open cars where the strain is not so severe. We want to sell you this modern tire for the modern car, on its merits. Back of it are 78 years of highest quality manufacturing on the part of the Brunswick makers. They could not afford to put their name on a poor product. We cannot afford to recommend to you anything but the best. Come in and look over the new Friction-Proofed Brunswick Sedan Tire, and let us explain in detail its advantages.

Don't keep perishable food in your Pantry!

Food that is kept in an open pantry is exposed to two real dangers. One is the bacteria always present in warm air and dust. The other is the bacteria which begin to multiply in the food itself as soon as the temperature reaches 50 degrees, or warmer.

It is impossible to keep a pantry free from germ-laden air and dust, even in cool weather. There is only one safe way to keep food, and that is in the cold, even temperature of a refrigerator well filled with ice. Germs cannot thrive in a 40 degree temperature.

It is a prudent and sensible habit to keep ice in the house all the year around. It is real economy, too. Ice will pay for itself in the food it saves.

Modern Version of New Testament

By EDGAR J. GOODSPEED
Professor of Biblical and Patristic Greek, the University of Chicago

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO MATTHEW

And he called the people to him and said to them, "Listen to this, and grasp it! It is not what goes into a man's mouth that pollutes him; it is what comes out of his mouth that pollutes a man."

Then his disciples came up to him and said to him, "Do you know that the Pharisees were shocked to hear you say that?"

But he answered, "Any plant that my heavenly Father did not plant must be uprooted! Leave them alone. They are blind guides! But if one blind man leads another, they will both fall into the ditch!"

Peter said to him, "Explain the figure for us."

He said,

"Have even you no understanding yet? Can you not see that whatever goes into the mouth passes into the stomach and then is disposed of? But the things that come out of the mouth come from the heart, and they pollute a man. For out of the heart come wicked designs, murder, adultery, immorality, stealing, false witness, impious speech. It is these things that pollute a man, but not eating with unwashed hands!"

And Jesus left that place and retired to the neighborhood of Tyre and Sidon. And a Canaanite woman of that district came out and screamed,

"Son of David, take pity on me, sir! My daughter is dreadfully possessed by a demon!"

But he would not answer her a word. And his disciples came up and urged him, saying,

"Send her away, for she keeps screaming after us."

But he answered,

"I am sent only to the lost sheep of Israel's house."

And she came and fell down before him, and said,

"Help me, sir!"

He said,

"It is not right to take the children's bread and throw it to the dogs!"

But she said,

"O yes, sir! For even dogs eat the scraps that fall from their masters' table!"

Then Jesus answered,

"You have great faith! You shall have what you want."

And her daughter was cured from that time.

Jesus left that place and went along the shore of the Sea of Galilee, and went up on the hillside and sat down there. Then great crowds came to him bringing with them those who were lame, crippled, blind, or dumb, and many others. And they laid them down at his feet, and he cured them, so that the people were astonished to see the dumb speak, the lame walk and the blind see. And they praised the God of Israel.

Then Jesus called his disciples to him and said to them,

"I pity these people for they have been staying with me three days now and they have nothing left to eat, and I do not mean to send them away hungry, for they may give out on the way."

The disciples said to him,

"Where can we get bread enough in this solitude to feed such a crowd?"

Jesus said to them,

"How many loaves have you?"

They said,

"Seven, and a few small fish."

Then he ordered the people to take their places on the ground, and he took the seven loaves and the fish and gave thanks and gave them to his disciples, and the disciples gave them to the people. And they all ate and satisfied their hunger. And the pieces that they left that were picked up filled seven baskets. There were four thousand men who were fed, besides women and children. And he dismissed the people and got into the boat and went to the district of Magadan.

The Pharisees and Sadducees came up and to test him asked him to show them a sign from heaven. He answered,

"It is a wicked and faithless age that insists on a sign, and no sign will be given it but the sign of Jonah."

And he left them and went away.

When the disciples went across the lake, they forgot to take any bread. And Jesus said to them,

"Look out, and be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees!"

But they were discussing something with one another, and saying,

"We have not brought any bread!"

Jesus noticed it and said,

"Why are you discussing with one another your being without bread? You have so little faith! Do you not understand yet? Do you not remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many baskets full you gathered up? Nor the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many baskets full you gathered up? Why do you not see that I was not talking to you about bread? But be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and

EUROPE SICK MAN AGAIN IN HOSPITAL SAYS GOV. ALLEN

By HENRY J. ALLEN
The former governor of Kansas, recently returned from a survey of conditions in the Near East, thinks Russia still cherishes her old dreams of possessing Constantinople. We have cost Europe thirty millions of lives since 1914, and the majority of these were women and children, whose death was due, not to bullets but starvation.

WICHITA, Kans., Nov. 16.—People who go abroad to study postwar conditions in Europe always go with fixed impressions. One of the entertaining things about those of our Senators and Congressmen who have recently returned from their annual summer survey in search of "impressions," is the tremendous success with which they have brought their original impressions back unimpaired.

I can at least lay claim to having changed some of my old ideas as a result of three months spent, not in Paris and London, but in the far frontiers of suffering and starvation, in the midst of the turmoil that is the Near East.

I was prepared to find much of suffering and tragedy, but I was not prepared to find that degree of indifference to it which results from the long-continued and desperate struggle for survival among the peoples of Greece, Turkey and Russia. I was not prepared to find it so definitely proven by every fact and circumstance that a million people would have died during the past year except for the help which America has given.

Thirty million persons have died in Europe and the Near East as a result of the series of wars which began in 1914. More than half of them were women and children, innocent sufferers from man's inhumanity. And the cause of their death was not bomb or bullet or shrapnel, but starvation. The grimest harvest of war has been the harvest of starvation.

When we wonder why feelings in these near-eastern countries are not more mellow, why more people do not respond to the drum of peace and the summons of the golden rule, we must remember that nations do not bury their hatreds in the same grave where they bury their dead. I was one of many who were disappointed to see Turkey come back into Europe. I was disappointed, but not surprised. Her return was one of the many mistakes made by the war-weary politicians of Europe.

But Turkey has not come back for the purpose of making herself a great European power. She has merely returned to her old hospital. She is still the sick man of Europe, and if she ever shows any vital stirring of new strength, the Powers will establish new quarantine regulations to keep her in the hospital.

Turkey and Russia are still the same old enemies. One hundred and thirty million people in Russia continue to cherish the old dreams of extending their empire to the Bosphorus and Dardanelles. Those are dreams which have been Russia's since the days of the golden fleece.

Nor are Turkey's other neighbors unkind of her return to Europe. Roumania and Jugoslavia and Greece are on the watch, to say nothing of England guarding her graveyards at Gallipoli. Jugoslavia has the greatest army in Europe next to France. Even Bulgaria is no longer kindly disposed toward her late ally.

No, I wouldn't give the Turk much for his chance to get out of the hospital.

However, the return of Turkey to Europe is no credit to those who operate the chess-board of international politics. Especially as it has been done at the expense of the Greeks, who deserved better reward for their assistance to the Allies in the war.

The principal constructive work in the Near East today is being done by Americans, and the seed which we are sowing will eventually bring forth the only fruit for the salvation of this complicated situation. The greatest hope in the Near East today is that which has been planted by American money and American idealism, in our educational institutions and in our constructive relief work.

I made an intensive investigation of our humanitarian work in six countries of the Near East, and I am glad to say that I came away with the realization that this work is as free from just criticism as any work I have ever seen in all the world. It is carried on by our representatives in the face of great difficulties, but they show an inspiring American resourcefulness, and the money which has been spent under their direction has been well expended. It has had a real effect on the situation, and its ultimate value will be far greater than any of us can realize today.

We must not stop or halt in our effort to put common-sense humanity into the near-eastern situation. We are the one voice speaking for the square deal and the Golden Rule. We must carry on what we have begun. We have not yet reached the point where we can lessen our effort. To cease now would be to sign deliberately a death warrant for those who not merely are dependent upon us, but who are the real hope of the future in a sorely troubled part of the world. Let us celebrate Golden Rule Sunday, not merely with lip service but with a determination to make the Golden Rule a real principle in international affairs.

Pile Sufferers! This New Discovery Will Rid You of Piles (Hemorrhoids) Forever

Has completely Cured Cases of Several Years' Standing in from Three to Eight Days. Guaranteed by All Good Druggists.

Perhaps the most amazing discovery of recent years in the field of medicine is the discovery that Piles can now be successfully treated and cured at home by a wonderful substance called MOAVA. This substance in the form of a suppository is inserted into the rectum where by its soothing, healing action all pain and soreness is allayed and then by direct contact with the ulcers and piles causes them to heal up and disappear forever.

It's positively marvelous how speedily it acts. Blessed relief often comes after the use of the first suppository even in cases with profuse bleeding that have resisted all known treatments; often after operation, really wonderful results have been accomplished.

The discoverer of this truly wonderful substance has instructed druggists all over the country to guarantee MOAVA SUPPOSITORIES in every case of blind, bleeding or protruding piles. In fact goes so far as to say that he doesn't want a cent of any sufferer's money, even in the worst cases unless it absolutely does what is claimed for it.

A Day Dream Comes True

Not so very many years ago a man stood on the spot where is now the main intersection of Montrose. He looked down upon the green Verdugo Valley, and out upon a broad expanse of scenery more beautiful than any he had yet seen. He felt the warm rays of the sun upon his body, and breathed deeply of refreshing mountain breezes. The ground was rough beneath his feet, but it was fertile soil. The brush grew rank and tall but it shaded a crimson mountain rose. The road was poorly made and little used, but the path to Paradise, they say, is often rough. That man stood with his eyes wide open and dreamed a dream that is today a reality.

Then, because he was a "doer" Mr. Robert Walton went down to the city and told his friends. Some of them believed. And a few of them put their hands down into their pockets and said, "We will go in to this with you." For he went in with all he had.

A company was formed which bought up several hundred acres of land at the junction of the Verdugo, La Crescenta and La Canada Valleys. And shortly a townsite was laid out which was called "Montrose." Water was piped down from the mountains, electricity was made available, shrubs and trees were set out, streets and curbs were put in, and the land was put on the market to be sold as a high class residential district. Many came who saw the natural beauty of the place. Soon a number of beautiful homes were built by people who could overlook the inconveniences of "pioneering" for the glory of the hills. After a few months the county roads were improved. The carline was extended from Verdugo Woodlands to the southern boundary of Montrose and still later it was carried to Oceanview avenue. The state highway to San Francisco, via the San Joaquin Valley, was designated to be built along Michigan avenue, a few hundred feet north of the Montrose line. And it was not very long until highways extended in every direction from the community, which provided an added impetus to its growth.

Then, unfortunately, came the slump which hit the entire country. Building practically ceased and business seemed at a standstill. But only for a time. You can't keep a good thing back. And with the return of prosperity Montrose again began to grow.

Others came who also saw the vision. They also appreciated the ideal location, the healthful climatic conditions of Montrose, Gem of the Green Verdugos. And their efforts were lent toward the realization of the dream. Today Montrose is growing by leaps and bounds.

Three years ago a certain grocery store in the community could boast of only twelve "regular" customers. Today it has, conservatively speaking, five hundred, and adding more every day. Three years ago one could have purchased the bank building on the corner of Montrose and Honolulu avenues for six thousand dollars. Today it can't be bought for thirty thousand. Three years ago business lots sold for a hundred. Now the prospective purchaser must speak rather loudly in thousands. And business property is scarce. Owners do not want to sell. They want to build. Prices are not inflated. It is just the old, old story of supply and demand. These instances are cited in order that those who "don't know" can get an idea of the growth of Montrose.

The expansion of the Crescenta Mutual Water Company, successors to the original Sierra Verdugo company, furnishes interesting data. The present company was incorporated in July, 1920. At that time there were approximately 100 share holders. Today there are over 700. And new owners are being added at the rate of practically one for every working day. This is just the story of one of several water companies that supply Montrose and the surrounding territory.

Interesting too, is the rapid growth of the Montrose State Bank which opened its doors in December, 1922. Since that time the volume of business and the number of accounts have almost tripled what was hoped for by the officers and original stockholders. The total assets today are approximately a quarter of a million dollars. The officers and stockholders appreciate the very liberal and wholehearted support of the entire community.

And so Montrose continues to forge ahead. The higher class of residence subdivisions everywhere indicate that hundreds upon hundreds of homeseekers are looking toward the highlands. And Montrose is one of the most beautiful and ideally located of all the hillside regions.

Montrose is just ten minutes drive from Glendale. Los Angeles is reached over several delightfully scenic highways. Other paved highways spread out from Montrose toward La Canada and Flintridge on the east, La Crescenta, Tujunga and Sunland on the west and Alta Canada on the north. This is the "Gateway" to these foothill towns, and practically all the traffic to and from them passes through this community.

Montrose boasts of a live chamber of commerce comprised of all business men of the community. Every one a booster, ever one working heart and soul for the betterment and progress of Montrose.

A new and beautiful school building houses the happy children of the district, while numerous organizations work for the good of the kiddies here.

The beautiful Oakmont Country Club adjoins Montrose on the South. The club grounds comprise some one hundred and sixty acres of land. The golf course of the club is considered one of the best in all the Southland, and affords a popular diversion for the business men and sportsmen of Montrose. Swimming, riding and all the outdoor sports are offered to the members and their friends.

We are looking forward to the erection of a first class hotel in the near future. A picture show will also undoubtedly make its appearance here soon. Work will begin within a few days on the building of a fine store building. The electric car line is being carried to the end of Pennsylvania avenue. By the first of the year there will be a through service to Los Angeles with cars running every half hour during the day and special twenty minute service in the mornings and at evening.

A good bus line also serves the Verdugo valley residents. The streets of Montrose are wide and well cared for. The buildings are beautiful and substantial and the residence are charming in every respect, being carefully planned with an eye for the harmony and refinement of cultured taste.

The business men and merchants of Montrose are the kind with whom you would like to deal. The residents of Montrose are neighbors of whom you would be proud. They are all loyal, progressive citizens. The spirit of co-operation and fellowship which exists among them bears evidence of the class of people who are making the Montrose of today a fulfillment of the dream of yesterday.

MONTROSE NOTES

All of Montrose and La Crescenta are looking forward with pleasure to the Woman's Club dance and masquerade party to be given Saturday evening in the auditorium of the La Crescenta school house. The jolly affair will be the event of the month according to plans which are being made by the ladies in charge. Mrs. Mark S. Collins, chairman of the entertainment committee, and Mrs. Daroll, chairman of the program committee, are looking after arrangements for the dance.

Everyone will attend the party attired in costume and masked. There will be a prize offered for the most fun provoking costume as well as for the prettiest. A grand march will culminate in the removal of masks, according to the usual manner. Refreshments will be served during the evening. Proceeds from the party will be given in to the building fund, which is already reaching "working" proportions.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Thomas, newly-weds, have purchased a home on Briggs avenue, north, where they expect to remain. The Thomas's some time ago rented the charming little cottage but became so infatuated with it that they made arrangements to buy. They are greatly pleased with the wonderful view and beautiful mountain scenery.

Ladies of Montrose and La Crescenta are invited to attend a silver tea to be given at the home of Mrs. Culberson one day next week. The affair will be given for the benefit of the Woman's club, and promises to be a delightful afternoon entertainment. Those who have attended past parties given at the Culberson home know what a charming and hospitable hostess that lady is, and they need no second urging to be her guest at the coming tea.

Oh! A. Dispeneth, the electrician at the Montrose Electrical shop is passing out cigars today. And you should see the delighted grin that covers his face. It won't come off, either. At least not until he begins to walk the floor nights with the lovely baby girl that was born Thursday morning in a Los Angeles hospital. The mother and babe are doing well, and the parents are over-joyed at their young daughter's arrival.

Mr. Joseph Sheffer was Thursday morning greatly surprised to greet his mother who comes from Michigan. Mrs. Sheffer had made the long journey alone, planning to surprise her son. She had nothing but a rural mail delivery address by which to find him, but so anxious to see her son was she that any obstacles could be easily overcome. Arriving in Montrose the mother inquired at the Montrose Furniture store and was driven right out to his home.

To all those who are interested in community singing comes the welcome news that a meeting has been called for this evening for the purpose of organizing and electing officers for a "sing club" in Montrose. Mrs. A. F. Hopkins, who was named temporary chairman at the last meeting of the chamber of commerce, asks all who like to sing to come to the gathering tonight and help in the work of organization. Eight o'clock is the hour and the meeting place is the new Montrose schoolhouse.

Location: Corner New York Ave. and Altura Ave.

How to Get There: From Montrose drive west on Honolulu Ave. to Pennsylvania Ave., go north on Pennsylvania Ave. two blocks above, or north, of the end of street car line to sign "Collins' Half Acres," and let us show you this new tract which is the smoothest, most free from rock and has the best soil of any tract we have ever sold. The view is just wonderful from every part of this beautiful tract.

Situated in this wonderful valley in the coming Queen City, surrounded by the Green Verdugo Hills and the lofty Sierra Madre mountains, only thirteen miles from Los Angeles postoffice and only three blocks from electric cars.

This subdivision will be divided into about about half acre lots and will be about three times the size of other lots in tracts near this tract.

We buy land in large tracts and sell so cheap that everyone who has bought land of us has made or could make a handsome profit. Many have doubled and trebled their investments. We only require $50 down and $15 a month. Price $1400.

Come and see this, our most wonderful subdivision. Come early as we expect to sell every lot the opening day.

WALL PAPER AS A DECORATIVE EXPRESSION

Things to Be Considered in the Making of Selections

"Wallpaper is the most flexible medium of decorative expression; with it one can be gay and whimsical, or solemn and pretentious, or intimate and informal, or quiet and restful," declares C. W. Cousins in a recent periodical.

"A papered wall becomes an active, truly decorative part of a room, about which everything else may center."

"The living room is perhaps the most difficult to choose suitable wall paper for, because it is heterogeneous in character. It usually combines the three functions of the drawing room, sitting room and library. Two toned damask has, therefore, been found successful in many living rooms. This has quiet necessary for the background as well as the touch of dignity that is desirable. Especially attractive are grass cloths or grass cloth finished papers. For a little more vitality and interest there are these same cloths with damask patterns with the pattern lightly outlined in metals, silver or gold. The self-color stripe, with the stripe indicated only by a different texture can also be used to advantage."

"For a rich background that will not be too decided, there are the 'apestry' papers. These range all the way from the vague verdure effects, that are hardly more than massed lights and shadows in two or three tones of the color to the rather clearly drawn landscapes, and they come not only in the conventional greens and blues but in soft grays and browns as well. Especially interesting is a recently issued English paper of which the design is adapted from a French Gothic tapestry with a medieval gentleman pursuing quaint beasts through a thick and flowery wood indicated in flatly drawn superimposed shrubs and flowers."

"Where there is opportunity for more decided patterns the close-drawn, continuous designs such as those which William Morris made so beautifully are very good. Ideal examples are his Pimpernel and Honey-suckle. And finally for the living room that is quite English and rather more like a morning room in character there are the chintz papers. But these forbid much ornament in the room."

COAST-TO-COAST ARMY STORE IS MAKING RECORD

The new coast-to-coast Army store which opened at 145 South Brand several days ago, is now enjoying a record business, it having been necessary to add another clerk to meet the demands of the public. Catering to the working-man, the store remains open evenings, a great feature, allowing ample time for shopping after work. The values which are offered are a great incentive, bringing hundreds to the store every day. The new coast-to-coast Army store specializes in furnishings for the working man, including shoes, and also carries army goods, all at pleasing prices. This chain of stores, extending from New York, westward, is operated on the profit-sharing plan, the buying power of the large concerns resulting in ridiculous low prices.

Product

The value in a product is measured by the character of its maker.

A product may be made to sell or it may be made to perform a great, genuine and lasting service to its users.

Instead of making himself very rich—as he might have—John H. Patterson put himself and his money into making the most highly developed and perfect machine that could be devised.

The way these machines have stood hard usage for 25 years and more testifies to a life consecrated to service to the public. This is the secret of the National Cash Register.

Trend of Fashion

By HELEN MERRILL EMERY

This is a season when a woman who is at all clever with the needle has her innings, for there is scarcely a model that has not somewhere about it a touch of distinctive handwork.

There are wide bands of gayly colored cross-stitch copied from the old patterns of European peasants. There are strips of crocheted wool that extend from the neck to the hem of a dress or tunic after the fashion of a Russian tunic. There are exquisite motifs in silks and metal threads that reproduce the intricate and minute designs of Chinese embroidery. These are just a few forms of handwork which are used with such telling effect to give distinction to the costumes of this winter.

One girl seen recently at a smart tea room had on a most fascinating Russian furban of black velvet. It fitted the head closely and its only decoration consisted of the Russian eagle done in red, blue and grey wool cross-stitching. There was one in front and at the back, and one on each side. Near by sat a woman in dark blue with a wide band of peasant work edging the bell sleeves and the bottom of her dress. These were in the brightest colors. On another frock was a striped trimming in black, red and bright blue. Looking closely one saw that the stripes were of wool and were crocheted.

Quite different, but emphasizing as clearly the present feeling for all kinds of handwork, the model sketched may easily be copied by the home needlewoman. The skirt and sleeveless blouse are of brown velvet while the sleeves and trimming are of coral color crepe de chine with bright flowers done in wool.

Handwork is Featured on Frocks of Velvet

FEEDING CHILDREN

"All foods that are natural foods are good for your child," says a health authority. Virtually all of the fruits may be given, beginning with juice for the tiny baby and gradually changing until it gets mashed pulp, and then whole fruit when there are teeth. Peaches, pears, plums, cherries, oranges, grapefruit, apples—finely scraped at first—watermelon, cantaloupe, and practically every other fruit except seed-bearing berries—when the juice alone must be used—form delightful and healthful foods.

The lazy man would rather sit down and hope than go after a certain "Asparagus, string beans, peas, carrots, spinach, tomato juice," boiled onion pulp, and baked potatoes are among the vegetables that may be given at an early age. Some mothers use very finely scraped vegetables in their raw form, with very excellent results, for in this way the infant gets the full benefit of the mineral salts that are often wasted by evaporation in the cooking. But I should not recommend this unless the child has very excellent digestive powers, or unless it has had raw vegetables from the start."

MIDGET GRIDDERS TIE FOR CENTRAL LEAGUE PENNANT

Glendale Lightweights
Down Covina Squad,
Tie for Championship

By FAIRFIELD WILSON
Glendale's midget footballers defeated the Covina rivals yesterday in a hotly contested game on the latter's field. The score was 13-6, and exceptionally good football was the order of the day. By this victory Coach "Nuco" Buterfield's boys tied the Covina aggregation for first place in the league. The Dynamiters thoroughly believe that if the enemy can be licked one time, the same can be done times without number.

The first blood drawn was by Glendale, when Lovell succeeded in making good a placement kick from the 40-yard line. This was accomplished in the first five minutes of play, and was, by far, the finest exhibition of kicking yet rendered by the Dynamiters. Perhaps it was this show of skill, which was unexpected, that so surprised the opponents that they failed to demonstrate their much-talked-of ability. At any rate this was not enough for the dauntless Lovell. He proceeded to kick another in the second quarter, which, although not so long, was as true and scored just as much. These kicks brought the score, at the end of the half to 6-0 in favor of Glendale.

Although it is not known when the playoff will be, it is certain that many are planning to see it, not matter where the place or what the time. It might be considered quite a coincidence that the two teams destined to be tied for the league championship in both lightweight and heavyweight football should not have been scheduled to meet till the last league game. Today the two big teams meet on the home field. This clash will positively decide the heavyweight championship, unless it results in a tie. The game starts at 3:30 and everyone should be prompt, as there will be a big crowd on hand. Les Marston, matchmaker, states that this is one of the best cards he has ever been able to secure. The bouts are staged in Hahn's auditorium, 109 North Brand, on Tuesday evenings at 8:30.

WILDCATS HERE TO MEET THE TROJANS

Arizona Eleven Will Play
U. S. C. Team at the Coliseum

Coach Fred McKale and his Arizona Wildcats pulled into town this morning and announced that they were all set for their struggle with "Gloomy Gus" Henderson's U. S. C. Trojans in the Los Angeles Coliseum tomorrow.

The Wildcats have been beaten this year St. Mary's and Davis Farm and their chances of leaving town with a victory are about as bright as a tarnished piece of ebony. However, Nevada tied California and there is always a possibility of an upset.

Henderson will probably start a number of his second-string players against the Wildcats and if he can get a victory with his subs he will hold out his regulars for next week's battle against the unbeaten Idaho Vandals, who play Stanford tomorrow at Palo Alto.

All of the Trojans are in good condition and should the Wildcats cause "Gloomy" any anxiety they will be thrown into the fray. Most of the Trojans are still feeling riled about their defeat at the hands of Andy Smith's Bears and will go into the game determined to scatter the Wildcats all over the Coliseum greensward, if such a thing is possible.

LANDIS TO TAKE HAND IN FIGHT

CHICAGO, Nov. 15.—The now famous Pacific Coast controversy between William H. McCarthy, deposed president, and the "big five" promises to end up in the hands of High Commissioner Landis.

That's the angle handed out by the smart insiders of the game around Chicago. Moreover, there is every reason to believe the board of arbitration of the national association will "pass the buck" when the time arrives. Inasmuch as the McCarthy-Williams battle for presidency has ever crowded its way into the major league limelight the members of the board probably will take the case up as soon as they convene.

WALTZ AND SMITH WILL MIX IN A. C. BOUTS

Bantamweight Boxers
Have Good Record
Behind Them

Sammy Waltz and Larry Smith, two of the best bantam weights in the country, will mix in the Glendale Athletic club bout next Tuesday evening. They are both easterners of considerable repute in the boxing game, and both claim to have fought all of the near-champions of their weight. They will make things snappy when they get into action in the local ring. A large crowd will probably come to see these two bantamweight scrapers.

Johnny Meyers of the Glendale fire department and Young Calhoun of Los Angeles will stage the semi-windup affair. Meyers has fought here before, staging the main event several weeks ago and winning the decision in four rounds. Calhoun has not appeared in the local arena before. They will enter the ring at 158 pounds.

Billy Kelly and Joe Thompson will stage a battle before the local fans which is expected to be unusually good. Neither has appeared here before, but both are real scrapers. They are also 158 pounders. Jim Racer and Ted Rose will stage a return bout. Bert Gonzales and Otto Wallace will put on a scrap which is expected to be a good one. Gonzales was defeated last week by Pete Essick, while Wallace is new to local fans. There will be a curtain raiser, the participants of which have not yet been announced.

OXY TIGERS TO BATTLE WITH BEAR CUBS

Patterson Field Scene of Only Conference Game
Tomorrow

By LESTER P. GRAFIOUS

Although defeated Monday by Caltech, the Occidental College footballers figure on defeating the Southern Branch Cubs when the two teams meet tomorrow on Patterson field. If they can hand the Cubs the short end of the score, the Tigers will tie with Pomona and Caltech for first place in the Conference standings. This is the only game to be played in the Southern California conference this week. The big game will start at 3, while the freshmen of the two institutions will tangle at 1 o'clock.

There does not seem to be much doubt that Occidental will defeat the Branchers. The last mentioned eleven is at the present time a team of cripples. Loren Peak, full-back and mainstay of the Cub of offensive power, is suffering from an injured shoulder.

Oxy is rather bad off, as far as that goes, in the way of injuries. Argue and Spangler are both limping around at present, but are expected to be in tomorrow's game. The slowing up of these men will naturally handicap the Tigers. The fighting spirit of the Cubs is well known and a hard tussle is expected by Coach Pipal and his crew. All Occidental received a shock Monday when Captain Spangler had to be taken from the game and Ridderhoff was knocked out. However, the Tigers know that they are still in the race and, with their fighting spirit aroused, SO. BRANCH OCCIDENTAL

TROJANS TAKE ON ARIZONA TOMORROW

Henderson's Men Will Open Up Against Wildcats

Beaten by California but by no means through for the season, Coach Elmer C. Henderson's University of Southern California Trojans meet the Arizona Wildcats in the Los Angeles Coliseum tomorrow in a game that should prove a good stiff workout for their game a week later with Idaho. Arizona, scrappy as usual, comes to Los Angeles with a team which is perhaps better than its record. After piling up a 21 point lead on St. Mary's recently, they completely collapsed and allowed the Saints to score three touchdowns and a 23 to 21 victory in the last five minutes of play.

The game is a non-Conference contest and is simply a renewal of the friendly relationships which exist between these two leading universities of the Southwest, as well as an exhibition of good football.

A victory over U. S. C. would be out to defeat the Cubs and redeem themselves from their defeat at the hands of the Caltech Engineers. The two teams will line up as follows:

With the heaviest part of his schedule completed, it is believed that Henderson will "open up" against the Wildcats and turn in as heavy a score as he can. All of his men came through the California game in fine shape, and as soon as a few minor bruises heal the squad will be in good condition for Saturday's game.

SPORT =O= GRAMS

FRANCIS W. READ

Not long ago comment appeared in a Los Angeles paper in regard to educating the public to football. It told how many persons who witness a game of the gridiron sport are unable to follow the game because of their lack of knowledge on the fundamentals of football. Several different methods were suggested to remedy this condition and educate the public to football without giving them the technical side of the game.

An illustration of how this may be accomplished is shown in a program for one of the football games played on the Stanford gridiron recently. A copy of this program has just reached the writer. In addition to the usual printed matter on the program, such as the lineups of the team, history of the coaches and players, etc., there is a summary of the penalties, including the number of yards lost by each offense and a summary of the method in which scores are made and counted. To the best knowledge of the writer, no such form of program has ever been published at a football game in these parts. There is considerable advantage in placing these details on the program, inasmuch as it places the facts of the game directly before the spectators where they can read them before the game and can refer to them while the game is in progress. In all the elaborate programs that have been published for college football games in Southern California, some of them profusely illustrated and filled with unnecessary reading matter, there has not been one that has contained any explanation about points of the game that might be in doubt to the average spectator. Stanford is to be congratulated upon this new departure in the line of programs, which serves also to educate the public to the game.

The Los Angeles Coliseum has a unique device that not only gives the fans the rules in a nut-shell, but also lets them inside into the details of each play. This device is an electrical magnavox, with horns reaching all parts of the stands. An announcer, an expert on football, announces each play at it occurs, and his voice is broadcasted throughout the stands. In this way the fans are given the inside dope on just what happens every minute, something that they cannot see from their positions in the stands. Then each substitution is announced as it is made, and the spectators are able to know who is in the game all the time. This system worked out perfectly in the early games at the Coliseum, especially at the Occidental-Stanford game, but at the time of the California-U. S. C. battle last Saturday it seemed to be on the bum. Experiments had been tried as to the placing of the horns and the amount of current used, with the result that the device was almost useless.

STANFORD TO PLAY IDAHO

PALO ALTO, Nov. 16.—The Coast Conference race for championship honors remains practically unchanged as a result of tomorrow's games, with the Universities of Idaho, Washington and California yet undefeated. However, Idaho has been held to a scoreless tie by Oregon, and Oregon decisively defeated by Stanford, so that it looks as though next Saturday's contest at Berkeley will just about decide the coast championship. And on the basis of comparative scores California, it appears, will be in for a bad afternoon, with Washington at least two touchdowns her superior—on paper.

details of each play. This device is an electrical magnavox, with horns reaching all parts of the stands. An announcer, an expert on football, announces each play at it occurs, and his voice is broadcasted throughout the stands. In this way the fans are given the inside dope on just what happens every minute, something that they cannot see from their positions in the stands. Then each substitution is announced as it is made, and the spectators are able to know who is in the game all the time. This system worked out perfectly in the early games at the Coliseum, especially at the Occidental-Stanford game, but at the time of the California-U. S. C. battle last Saturday it seemed to be on the bum. Experiments had been tried as to the placing of the horns and the amount of current used, with the result that the device was almost useless.

These two ideas, the magnavox announcing the game play by play, as it occurs, and the publication on the program of the vital points, or points obscure to the spectator, have great possibilities for the education of the public attending the games on the vital points of football, so that they may be able to follow a game intelligently without being unduly burdened with technicalities. Other methods may follow, but these two have a great future in the work and will undoubtedly pave the way for a greater era of prosperity to modern collegiate football.

CENTRAL LEAGUE PENNANT IS AT STAKE

Glendale and Covina Will Meet to Decide the Championship

Championship of the Central league was at stake when the Glendale and Covina high school football teams faced each other this afternoon on the local field. The kickoff was scheduled for 3:30, but long before that time the crowd began to gather, and shortly before the game commenced all available seating facilities were exhausted, with the crowd overflowing the stands.

The Dynamiters and the Covina eleven are both real grid machines. Neither has suffered defeat as yet this season. The Glendale goal line has not been crossed in a league game, the only score against the team being a safety made for two points by Franklin in a practice game. Glendale has met some of the best teams in the south in practice games, including Santa Barbara, Fillmore, Ventura and many others, and has defeated all of them by large scores.

The entire Glendale lineup and the whole flock of substitutes was declared by Coach Hayhurst to be in first-class shape for the game. Hayhurst feels that the team is going into the game to win, but not overconfident. Dope seems to favor the locals. If comparative scores count for anything they have it all over Covina.

The teams lined up as follows:

GLENDALE	R.E.	COVINA
Hodri	Arnel	Arnel
Phillips	Manley	Manley
Brucker	Hubbard	Hubbard
Zahn	C.	Starr
Morrison	L.G.	Leonhardt
Dotson	L.T.	Rogers
Laville	L.E.	Jernigan
B. Elliot	R.H.	Dancer
Ryan	Q.	Grant
West	F.	Boots

A N A P P E A L

To those who are fortunate enough To Be Able To Give To Those Unfortunate, and To Help Make Better Citizens—

Glendale's Welfare Chest

SAVES
ANNOYANCE

The Welfare Chest Campaign eliminates 14 drives, tag days and ticket sales. Instead of being called on for contributions on an average of almost once every two weeks during the entire year, you will be called on ONCE AND ONCE ONLY for these 14 organizations.

MONEY

The Welfare Chest drive eliminates four-fifths of the cost of raising money for philanthropic purposes. The average cost of a small drive is 15 per cent. The Welfare Chest cuts this to approximately 2 per cent. The money you give goes where you want it to go. No paid campaign directors.

The Welfare Chest allows the member organizations to devote all of their energies to their proper and legitimate fields of activity. Their executives and the citizens who compose their boards of directors and campaign committees do not have to spend months of effort endeavoring to raise funds to carry on their work.

PROTECTS PUBLIC

The Welfare Chest provides responsible supervision of the demands on the people of Glendale for philanthropic purposes. It is the modern way of protecting generous people against extravagant, unwarranted and sometimes even fraudulent demands.

INSURES
JUSTICE

The Welfare Chest assures adequate support of worthy organizations and eliminates competitive solicitation between organizations. To each is given his just share. There is no starving to death or struggle for existence by one, while another has more than it needs. And it eliminates the unworthy by turning a searchlight upon them.

PREVENTS DUPLICATION

The Welfare Chest prevents duplication of work and overlapping of effort. Co-operation of all the agencies through the Central Welfare Council office all year around will secure a new efficiency in Glendale's social welfare program, with an immeasurable broadening of service and value to the community.

WANT PERPETUAL LIGHT AT TOMB OF UNKNOWN POILU

[By Associated Press]
PARIS, Nov. 16.—The tomb of France's unknown soldier beneath the Arc-de-Triomphe will become a more impressive symbol of sacrifice if the proposal to keep a flame under the arch burning day and night is adopted. The unknown soldier's tomb continues as a national shrine and is visited by thousands Sundays and holidays.
In this connection, it has been pointed out that time has effaced many memories connected with the war. It is a rare thing to see a war ribbon in a man's buttonhole, while during the first years after the war every winner of a war cross displayed its ribbon.

THINGS SUCH AS THESE HAPPEN UNDER VOLSTEAD

Mrs. Martha M. Allen, superintendent of the Medical Temperance for the World's and National W. C. T. U., is authority for the statement that 78 per cent of the physicians of the United States are not taking out permits to prescribe whiskey for medicine. There are about 35,000 physicians who have permits as against 125,000 who do not. There are 23 states in the Union where state laws forbid the sale of alcoholic liquors in drug stores, or their prescription by physicians. These states are, Alabama, Arizona, Arkansas, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Indiana, Kansas, Maine, Mississippi, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Oregon, Tennessee, Utah, Washington and West Virginia. In 1920 alcoholic liquors were dropped from the medical supplies bought for the United States Navy. The reason was that navy doctors were using almost no alcohol for treating the sick.

In its weekly review of the lumber market the publication Lumber of St. Louis under date of September 16 declares that continued improvements in the liquor markets has followed the gradual increase in activity that has been in evidence since the first of the month in spite of the fact that some prices have advanced.

Not a single baby born in Illinois last year was made blind by infection at birth according to an announcement made by the Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness. The society attributed this fact to the strict enforcement of law in the last five years of existing laws. Nobody doubts that prohibition by improving conditions in the families has had a great deal to do with the fact that the 1922 crop of children are not handicapped in the start by failure to see.

Another big whiskey merger is reported to be in the course of arrangement in Great Britain whereby Buchanan Dewar will add $5,000,000 to their already large capital of $37,500,000. This will be by the absorption of Merkle & Co. The Buchanan Dewar now owns most of the large distilleries in the north of England and Scotland.

According to notice from Paris, Gaston Gerard, mayor of Dijon, the capital of Burgundy, is coming to America where with the help of a collection of films he will deliver a series of lectures to convince the citizens that "good wine is the milk of the aged."

Mr. Gerard would prefer to strengthen his arguments by an appeal to a representative collection of samples of the best vintages from his province, but inasmuch as he would get into trouble by bringing them to America he is hoping to prove that good wine should not be classed with whiskey.

What formerly was known as the longest bar in the United States, that of the Ungerleider company at Bridgeport, O., has been sold to a concern which will manufacture candy. Bridgeport, on the Ohio side of the Ohio river, practically is a suburb of Wheeling, W. Va. When West Virginia went dry the Bridgeport saloon put a bar 50 feet long in its establishment, and that bar was open for business 24 hours in the day, taking care of the thirsty who came across the two bridges which separate Ohio from the mountain state. Four bartenders were constantly in charge and they were as busy as nailers.

FRUIT EXPRESS

FORCED TO ORDER
3057 MORE CARS

Growers and dealers in fruit and other perishable produce throughout the west will be interested in a telegram which was received by the Los Angeles office of the Union Pacific system from Mr. H. A. Adams, vice-president in charge of traffic at Omaha, Nebraska. The text of the telegram is as follows: "To properly care for perishable traffic, the Union Pacific and Southern Pacific have approved purchase by Pacific Fruit Express Company of 3,057 additional freight refrigerator cars, bids for which will be taken at once. Contract will require delivery prior to July 1st, next year."

The Pacific Fruit Express is owned jointly by the Union Pacific and the Southern Pacific Railways. As is indicated by its name, the function of this service is to handle perishable fruits and vegetables between the Pacific Coast States and other portions of the United States, by means of specially designed freight refrigerator cars.

The large order of 3,057 additional refrigerator cars is an indication, both of the increased production of fruits and other perishable produce on the Pacific Coast, and also of the desire on the part of the railway to render the best possible service to their customers.

Rhinestone Pins Decorate Hats
The new winter hats are not complete without a decoration of some sort, and the smartest of all is the rhinestone pin. One of the shops is showing these pins in a variety of styles. They can be worn either to hold back the brim of the new felt hats, or across the front of draped velvet or silk hats.

THEATRE

TWO JOYOUS DAYS

THOMAS MEIGHAN

IN
"WOMAN PROOF"

By GEORGE ADE

HERE'S a happy combination—Thomas Meighan and an original George Ade story! You know what that means—a made-to-order role for the star, a flock of laughs and a box-car load of surprises. Then, too, pretty Lila Lee plays opposite big, good-natured Tom. "Woman Proof," admit hard-boiled critics, "is a picture without a single flaw!" That's saying SOMETHING.

E. GILBERT EMERY AND MISS KING ARE WEDDED

At 2:15 o'clock on Thursday afternoon, November 15, 1923, the wedding of E. Gilbert Emery, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Emery of Glendale, and Miss Mary E. King of Hollywood took place at the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. E. King, 6268 DeLongpre avenue, Hollywood. Rev. Stewart P. MacLennan of the Presbyterian church of Hollywood officiated at the single ring ceremony.

of the fire place, which had been banked with pink and white sweet peas and ferns. The color scheme was also carried out in the carnations which were used in the other rooms. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore her going-away suit of brown and corsage bouquet of bride's roses. Miss Olive Bell Emery, sister of the bridegroom, was the maid of honor. The bride's brother, Waldo King, was the best man.

It was a quiet home wedding attended only by the immediate relatives of bride and bridegroom. Following the ceremony a wedding luncheon was served, with a bride's cake and also a bridegroom's cake that had been made by a friend residing in South Dakota. The young couple left for the north on a honeymoon trip the same day. On their return they will go to their home at 1015 1/2 El Centro street, Hollywood. Many beautiful gifts of silverware, cut glass, linens, etc., were received from their host of friends.

Mrs. Gilbert Emery was graduated from Hollywood high school in 1921 and was a junior at the University of Southern California, also a member of the Kappa Delta sorority. Gilbert Emery was a member of the 1919 graduating class from Glendale high school. In 1923 he was graduated from the college of business administration at the University of Southern California and at present is employed at the Merchants' National bank of Los Angeles.

Foley's Friendly Fancies

JAMES W. FOLEY

It's coming on Thanksgiving and I'm going to be glad.
For all the happiness I've known and all the friends I've had.
For all the blue and sunny days, for all the clouds and rain.
For everything there is in life, and know it's not in vain.
It's coming on Thanksgiving, and in the heart of me
I'm going to keep a song of praise, as earnest as I can be,
And for the day that's now and here, and for the days I've had
And for the day that yet may come I'm going to be glad.

It's coming on Thanksgiving, and I want to do my share
Of friendly things and helpful, and perhaps a few to spare;
For all the sorrows I have had I'm glad as I can be,
For that they've taught me lessons that were mighty good for me.
I've got a song within my heart, a song of simple praise
For life and love and work and all the sunny ways and days
And all the stern and dark ones too—and if some days were sad,
It's coming on Thanksgiving and I'm going to be glad!

"THE ETERNAL STRUGGLE"

With a Notable Cast Which Includes

EARLE WILLIAMS, BARBARA LA MARR,
PAT O'MALLEY, WALLACE BEERY

A tensely moving drama set against the flaming beauty of the Canadian Northwest. Friends, lovers, pals, became arch enemies. Snowbound, driven to madness they fought for the girl's favor.

AT THE THEATERS

VIOLA DANA IN CHARMING ROLE
AT THE GLENDALE

Viola Dana's distinctive personality and unique talent as a screen comedienne is given ample opportunity for a display of its best work in "Crinoline and Romance," the new Metro photoplay, which is now showing at the Glendale theatre.

There is no more delightful person in Miss Dana's whole gallery than her present one—Miss Emily Lou—a charming, unsophisticated southern miss whose adoring but stern grandfather has kept her in the most complete seclusion. Miss Dana receives excellent support from a truly notable cast. There are two leading men in the picture, Allan Forrest and John Bowers, the two rivals for Emmy's hand. Claude Gillingwater is the southern colonel, Emmy's grandfather, stern but kindly. Others worthy of mention are Gertrude Short and Lillian Lawrence.

THRILLS GALORE
IN PLAY NOW
AT THE GATEWAY

A brilliant cast including Renee Adoree, Barbara La Marr, Earle Williams, Pat O'Malley, Wallace Beery, Josef Swickard and Pat armon, figures brilliantly through the "The Eternal Struggle," a feature attraction at the Gateway theatre.

"The Eternal Struggle," is literally packed with spectacular thrills, most of which were filmed in far Canada where the story is centered. Aside from the tense drama of "The Eternal Struggle," the production has the marvelous beauty of the frozen north as a natural setting and it is beautifully photographed.

"The Eternal Struggle" is a notable achievement and ranks easily among the great pictures of the screen. It was adapted by J. G. Hawks and Monte M. Katterjohn from the famous novel by G. B. Lancaster, "The Law-Bringers," and was photographed by Percy Hilburn. It is a Reginald Barker production for the Metro-Louis B. Mayer forces.

ADE LENDS MORE THAN 500 "WIVES"
ON "WOMAN-PROOF"

More than 500 telegrams were received and dispatched in connection with Thomas Meighan's new Paramount star vehicle, "Woman Proof," which is at the T. D. & L. theatre again tomorrow. While George Ade, author, was writing the story at his home in Brook, Indiana, he frequently consulted Alfred E. Green, the director, and Mr. Meighan by telegram. Five wires were sent on one day when an intricate point in the plot was being settled. Mr. Ade also called Mr. Green in New York by long-distance telephone to consult him about technical details of the photodrama.

After the first draft of the story was complete, Messrs. Ade, Meighan, Green and Tom Geraghty, the production editor, held a two-weeks' conference at the Paramount studio in Hollywood before they were satisfied that the story was perfect. Lila Lee is leading woman and heads a strong supporting cast.
